

of each organism, actions oriented towards promoting the co-operation in the prevention, control and eradication of the illicit trafficking of weapons in the region.

The Organisation of American States (CIFTA and CICAD) and the United Nations should co-ordinate their efforts in the area of diffusion, training and technical cooperation to ensure the prevention, control and eradication of the illicit trafficking of weapons in the region, so as to avoid a possible duplication of efforts, maximise an efficient use of resources and share experiences which allows to raise the benefits of their activities in the region.

The Organisation of American States (CIFTA and CICAD) and the United Nations will organise a Regional Seminar on the implementation of international and regional instruments against the illicit trafficking of weapons in order to facilitate the application of this instruments (CIFTA, the CICAD Model of Regulations and the UN Programme of Action) by the States of the region.

Considering that the Organisation of the American States will celebrate a Special Conference on Hemispheric Security at the beginning of 2003, the UN Regional Centre on Disarmament is invited to actively participate on the preparation of such Conference, providing counselling and support for its preparations.
